Excerpt: . . . o determine whether SSI beneficiaries continue to meet the programs income and resource requirements. These factors, combined with recent workforce downsizing and the coming retirement of large numbers of SSAs aging workforce, will place tremendous pressures on the Agency to meet the publics need for service in the 21st century. The first hearing in the series on February 10, 2000, focused on Social Securitys service delivery practices, key service delivery challenges, and strategies to address those challenges. In announcing the hearing, Chairman Shaw stated: At our first hearing, we learned about the challenges Social Security will face in years to come as its own workforce ages and the number of Americans depending on Social Security skyrockets. This hearing will focus on how SSA is preparing for those challenges, including what steps it plans to take to provide world-class service as promised. FOCUS OF THE HEARING: This hearing will focus on SSAs service delivery practices, key current and future service delivery challenges, and plans to overcome those challenges and provide timely,...
