KENTUCKY TRAVELER: MY LIFE IN MUSIC

HarperCollins Publishers Inc. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Kentucky Traveler: My Life in Music, Ricky Skaggs, Unlike other small town farm boys in Cordell, Kentucky, Ricky Skaggs learned to play the mandolin at five years old. By age six, the unexpected musical prodigy found himself playing on stage with Bill Monroe, the father of bluegrass music. With Monroe as a mentor, Skaggs became a professional musician at age fifteen, joining the Clinch Mountain Boys band, and by twenty-one he...
