BY REV. AN: Over fifty years ago (in 1858) a fisherman was on the way to Finmarken. There was, at that time, a gracious revival in Tromso through the labors of Lammers, a converted minister in the State Church. Some of the converts went from Tromso to Mehavn, one of the fishing-camps in West Finmarken, and held a prayer-meeting on the top of a hill. One young convert who was very earnest in praying and exhorting his comrades to accept Christ was on the way farther north when his boat capsized. With two others he came to the surface and clung to the boat; but while his companions were rescued,...
