Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Urbane and His Friends Christian saw the picture of a very grave person hung up against the wall, and this was the fashion of it: it had eyes lifted up to heaven, the best of books in his hand, the law of truth was written on his lips, the world was behind his back; it stood as if it pleaded with men, and a crown of gold did hang over his head. Not very unlike this portrait, is that of one whom we now introduce under a fictitious name. Urbane is no longer young; he has been a Christian pastor for more than thirty years. During all that time, he has been listening to lamentations and confessions without number, from those professing the name of Christ. Doubts, difficulties, sins, failures, sometimes agonising temptations and falls, have met him everywhere; yet he has said to himself, Man's chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him for ever. But are most of the men and women under my influence, glorifying Him? And are they enjoying Him? And if not, why not?
